No one really knows how it's gonna go
No one really has a say
But should it come to pass that you go slippin' away
And I must still remain

I'll be standin' all alone with only half the heart of us
Broken so perfectly
Waiting on the day that we can piece it back
To half the heart you hold for me

And I'll be doin' fine
With half the heart I'm holdin' every night
I know that I'll be good to go the rest of the way
Down that last stretch of highway runnin' to the sea

Because I'm never gonna choose between you and me
And you and me and someone else
Everyday I'm one day closer to half the heart
I'll keep you sacred, keep you to myself

And I'll be doin' fine
With half the heart I'm holdin' every night
And baby if you hear me on the other side
Know that I can feel you and I'm comin' round to find you

So meet me under moonlit Como
Where the crystal light dances free
Meet me on the wind and where the roses bloom
And go fallin' at our feet
Meet me on a winter mountain
Meet me by the dunes on the cape
Meet me where the sun and the sea collide
At the birth and end of every day
Meet me in the silence
Meet me in the pain
Meet me in the song that will see us through
Down that last stretch of highway
Runnin' to the sea
Oh baby won't you meet me?

Then meet me in the golden light
Where the fire divides the dark
Meet me standin' there
Standin' there with half the heart
